MINI TIMMERMAN HOSTESS TO SCHUMANN CLUB

Mini Timmerman was gracious hostess to the Schumann Music Club last Friday afternoon at the home of her parents, Rev. and Mrs. J. A. Timmerman. Baskets of roses and lilies were used for centerpiece decoration.

The business meeting was conducted by Mini Timmerman, president, and minutes were read by the secretary, Ann Dumas. Plans for the commencement recital, which is to be held at the home of Mini Timmerman, were discussed.

Guests were seated in the dining room at a large round table beautifully appointed with flowers, musical motifs and green candles in silver candle holders. A silver lyre entwined with ferns and pink roses and placed on a large round mirror bordered with a wreath of delicate pink roses and lights which reflected the beauty formed the lovely centerpiece. Each place was marked with a miniature lyre and a dainty pink and green cup holding mints.

A delicious three-course menu was served.

Miss Nell English presided and directed a delightful program of entertainment, which consisted of songs in Pantomime, with Miss Mary Will Kendrick as winner of the prize; A Musical Romance, in which Miss Dorothy Murphy was winner; a Contest on Composers, with Miss Marjorie Murphree as winner; a Contest of Letters Written in Songs, and Dramatizations.

Following the dinner hour, the guests were invited into the living room, where other games and contests were enjoyed.

EDITOR IS APPRECIATED

All this talk about an editor not being appreciated is nonsense. We read of an account where an editor in a nearby county was presented a handsome banquet by a number of fellow-citizens. On the same occasion, a quartet from a local church sang a few songs and the minister made a brief talk, his husky citizens carried the popular editor from the house and placed him in a model 1940 plated sedan, and the town stood at attention. Later the appreciative crowd returned to their homes, serene in the thought of having provided one bright day in the life of their local news purveyor—even if they had to wait until he was dead to do so.—Holt (Michigan) Recorder.

JAMES WILLIAM COWEN WILL RECEIVE DEGREE FROM A. A. A.

AUBURN, Ala., May 15.—Coffee County will be represented by one graduate when degrees are awarded by Pres. L. N. Duncan to 462 members of the senior class at the Alabama Polytechnic Institute on May 27.

Both the laudatory sermon on Sunday, May 26, and the address and thanksgiving exercises on May 27 will be held in the late afternoon in the Auburn Stadium where more than 4,000 parents and visitors are expected.

Dr. C. Clyde Turner, prominent Baptist minister, Greensboro, N. C., and Hon. Robert M. La Follette, Jr., U. S. Senator from Wisconsin, will deliver the sermon and address, respectively.

PROTECTION AGAINST SMALLPOX GIVEN BY HEALTH DEPT.

Although there is apparently no cause to fear a serious smallpox epidemic of more than local proportions, those who have not been vaccinated against this disease should avail themselves of this protection, Dr. J. N. Baker, State Health Officer, Montgomery, urged this week.

"Fortunately, vaccination offers practically complete protection against smallpox," he said. "Even those who do not think they are in danger will be exposed to it should not run the risk of contracting it, which is greatly increased by the automobile and good roads, which bring people from distant places into frequent contact. Although one may live at a considerable distance from a community in which smallpox cases have developed, he never knows how soon he may become a visitor in his own community or become associated with one of its members of his family."

Dr. Baker revealed that 62,300 persons had been vaccinated against smallpox last year by members of the staffs of the State's 67 county health departments.

EXON SINGING MEETS

The Cole's Bridge Singing Society met at the Exon school house Sunday night, May 12, for another one of our second Sunday night singings. The weather being so pretty, the house was full of singers and visitors, and lots of people who could not crowd into the house.

The president called the singing to order by singing two songs. Then the committee reported the following lesson: Henson Waters, Mary Lowry, Elmer Fleming, Jim Wiley Martin, Lloyd Crook and Billy Coker.

At this time everyone enjoyed a duet by Mrs. Mitt Tindol and James Tindol. It being Mother's Day, Mr. and Mrs. several duets and quartettes for the occasion.

The lesson continued with the following leaders: John H. Hornsby, Lloyd Mison, James Tindol, the Cole's Bridge Quartette, Mrs. Jimmie L. Pool, little Jack Lowry, Frank Chapman and Howard Lunsford.

Planiars for the evening were Mrs. Bertin Lowry, Mrs. Anglin Pittman, Miss Katherine Dick, Nedra Mae Tindol and Rena Chapman. The congregation was dismissed by Eddie Lee Westbrook.

We want to welcome everybody back next second Sunday night, and bring someone with you.

Mrs. Remson Clark, Secy.

An increase of about one percent is reported in the average value of farm real estate values in the country over during the 12 months ending March 1. In Alabama the value was the same as one year ago.

PINE LEVEL NEWS

Farmers are making good use of the good sunny weather. Mr. Joe Hill Cooper has been spending some time with his sons, Mrs. Hill, at Elba, Ala., under Act of Congress of Oct. 3, 1917.

The police of the community have made sixteen mattresses up to now.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Williams announced the birth of a fine boy, Mr. Jack Linn of Columbus visited relatives in this community Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. Kate Tinn is spending some time in Columbus this week. The residence of Mr. Hoyte Mossack was burned Saturday night and a charred body was found in the ruins which was supposed to have been that of Mr. Mossack. His wife and children were spending the night away from home. We extend our sympathy to the bereaved ones.

Several relatives of Mr. and Mrs. Clark Nelson spent Saturday night and Sunday at their home. Mrs. Isabelle Bryan and children visited with Mr. and Mrs. Lennu Kirkness Sunday.

SEED TESTING LABORATORY TO BE ESTABLISHED IN ALA.

The Alabama Department of Agriculture and Industries has been selected to work in cooperation with the United States Department of Agriculture in the enforcement of the new Federal Seed Act.

A telegram from Senator John H. Bankhead advising the selection of Montgomery said in part: "I have just been advised by the Agriculture Department that arrangements have practically been completed for establishing a seed testing laboratory at Montgomery."

The selection of Montgomery as the site of the laboratory is a matter of fact, everything was wrong. Men listen to the same kind of teaching today for the very same reason.

Dr. C. Clyde Turner, prominent Baptist minister, Greensboro, N. C., and Hon. Robert M. La Follette, Jr., U. S. Senator from Wisconsin, will deliver the sermon and address, respectively.

EDITOR IS APPRECIATED

All this talk about an editor not being appreciated is nonsense. We read of an account where an editor in a nearby county was presented a handsome banquet by a number of fellow-citizens. On the same occasion, a quartet from a local church sang a few songs and the minister made a brief talk, his husky citizens carried the popular editor from the house and placed him in a model 1940 plated sedan, and the town stood at attention. Later the appreciative crowd returned to their homes, serene in the thought of having provided one bright day in the life of their local news purveyor—even if they had to wait until he was dead to do so.—Holt (Michigan) Recorder.

PROTECTION AGAINST SMALLPOX GIVEN BY HEALTH DEPT.

Although there is apparently no cause to fear a serious smallpox epidemic of more than local proportions, those who have not been vaccinated against this disease should avail themselves of this protection, Dr. J. N. Baker, State Health Officer, Montgomery, urged this week.

"Fortunately, vaccination offers practically complete protection against smallpox," he said. "Even those who do not think they are in danger will be exposed to it should not run the risk of contracting it, which is greatly increased by the automobile and good roads, which bring people from distant places into frequent contact. Although one may live at a considerable distance from a community in which smallpox cases have developed, he never knows how soon he may become a visitor in his own community or become associated with one of its members of his family."

Dr. Baker revealed that 62,300 persons had been vaccinated against smallpox last year by members of the staffs of the State's 67 county health departments.

EXON SINGING MEETS

The Cole's Bridge Singing Society met at the Exon school house Sunday night, May 12, for another one of our second Sunday night singings. The weather being so pretty, the house was full of singers and visitors, and lots of people who could not crowd into the house.

The president called the singing to order by singing two songs. Then the committee reported the following lesson: Henson Waters, Mary Lowry, Elmer Fleming, Jim Wiley Martin, Lloyd Crook and Billy Coker.

At this time everyone enjoyed a duet by Mrs. Mitt Tindol and James Tindol. It being Mother's Day, Mr. and Mrs. several duets and quartettes for the occasion.

The lesson continued with the following leaders: John H. Hornsby, Lloyd Mison, James Tindol, the Cole's Bridge Quartette, Mrs. Jimmie L. Pool, little Jack Lowry, Frank Chapman and Howard Lunsford.

Planiars for the evening were Mrs. Bertin Lowry, Mrs. Anglin Pittman, Miss Katherine Dick, Nedra Mae Tindol and Rena Chapman. The congregation was dismissed by Eddie Lee Westbrook.

We want to welcome everybody back next second Sunday night, and bring someone with you.

Mrs. Remson Clark, Secy.

MISS JEANNE BRUNSON PRESENTED IN RECITAL

The auditorium of Elba High School was the scene of a lovely concert, given by Miss Jeanne Brunson, when she presented her recital.

Decorations for the stage were carried out in salmon-pink and white, with a pretty arrangement of standard baskets of gladioli and fern.

Miss Brunson played a varied program, using numbers by the old masters as well as modern composers. She showed marked talent and ability in her beautiful interpretation and displayed a brilliant technique in the rendition of each number. She had a most pleasing stage appearance which immediately captivated her audience.

The program included:

Bourée from The Third Violin Suite—Bach.

Sonata Pathétique, opus 13 (Grave)—Allegro di molto e con brio—Bethoven.

Prélude, opus 28, No. 3—Chopin.

Prélude, opus 28, No. 15—Chopin.

Hark, Hark, the Lark—Schubert.

Clair de Lune—Debussy.

Tales of Manana—Cowell.

From the Cambré—Gardner—Amanita.

Romance, opus 28, No. 2—Schumann.

Wedding Day, opus 65, No. 6—Grieg.

Miss Brunson was given a lovely creation of dusty pink net over taffeta, featuring a sweet heart neckline. Her corsage was of sweet peas in pastel shades.

Immediately following the recital light refreshments were served by members of the High School Music Club from a lace-covered table appointed in crystal. About one hundred fifty guests were invited.

I hope to see each and every one personally to thank you, and will say this method of expression by my thanks to the people of the district.

Sincerely,

WILLIS WILSON.

CHAPEL PROGRAM IS GIVEN BY HIGH SCHOOL MUSIC CLUB

The Elba High School Music Club, under the leadership of Miss Jeanne Brunson, presented a delightful chapel program, based on the life and service of Thomas MacDowell, in the school auditorium, Friday morning at nine-forty-five, in observance of National Music Week.

Miss Jeanne Rhodes was leader of the program, which consisted of the devotional by Miss Gene Spurney, the governor's Music Week proclamation by Miss Maggie Dean Clark, a sketch of the life of MacDowell by Miss Sybil Rowell, and the following MacDowell compositions:
